

JOIN US

Briefing on MTCS/PEFC Chain of Custody Certification under the Malaysian Timber Certification Scheme (MTCS)

Unlocking Market Potential: Sustainable Practices Through Chain of Custody Certification

Overview

This seminar focuses on the importance of Chain of Custody certification in unlocking market potential through sustainable practices. It aims to educate participants on how certification can enhance market access, improve sustainability credentials, and meet the growing demand for responsibly sourced products.

Who should attend?

- Manufacturers and traders: forest-based products/ forest-based biomass/ packaging/ paper/ printing/ furniture.
- Companies aiming to implement green procurement in their supply chain.
- Companies aiming to expand beyond its existing markets.
- Public listed companies pursuing ESG, SDG, and other sustainability policies.
- Associations related to forest-based products
- Financial institutions.
- Any other interested parties interested in learning about MTCS/PEFC Chain of Custody certification and pursuing sustainable practices.

REGISTER NOW

click date to register

Online session

- 6/8/2024
- 30/9/2024

Beyond Certification: Leveraging PEFC for Sustainable Business Growth

Overview

This seminar goes beyond the basics of certification to explore how PEFC certification can be leveraged for sustainable business growth. It highlights the benefits of certification in enhancing brand reputation, accessing new markets, and meeting regulatory requirements. Participants will learn strategies to maximize the value of their PEFC certification.

Who should attend?

- Existing PEFC certificate holders
- State Forestry Departments
- Government bodies and agencies
- Associations related to forest-based products

REGISTER NOW

click date to register

In person session

- Ipoh, 15/8/2024

Navigating Compliance: Implementing PEFC & EUDR Due Diligence Systems for Chain of Custody Certificate Holders

Overview

This seminar focuses on the compliance aspects of PEFC and EUDR Due Diligence Systems. It aims to guide participants through the implementation process, ensuring they meet the necessary legal and regulatory requirements. The seminar will cover practices, risk management, and the benefits of maintaining robust due diligence systems.

Who should attend?

- Existing PEFC certificate holders implementing the Due Diligence System exporting to EU, or EU as part of their supply chain destination.
- Companies aiming to expand beyond its existing markets.
- State Forestry Departments
- Government bodies and agencies
- Associations related to forest-based products

REGISTER NOW

click date to register

In person session

- Selangor 9/10/2024
- Johor 23/10/2024
- Sabah 13/11/2024
- Sarawak 27/11/2024

Online session

- 5/12/2024