ASK, LEARN, AND BE INVOLVED

BY JOINING, YOU HELP:

- Ensure your community's needs and voices are heard.
- Protect important cultural and livelihood local sites.
- Understand the forest plans that may affect your land and resources.
- Keep forest management transparent and accountable.

WAYS TO BE ENGAGED

- Ask questions and raise concerns during meetings.
- Share your community's needs and local knowledge.
- Give feedback on forest plans that may affect your land and resources.
- Report problems or file a complaint if something goes wrong.

REMEMBER:

Under MTCS, your community's rights and input are part of how the forest is managed.
